Theater & Performing Arts

We primarily handle theatrical, dance, opera, and orchestral touring productions. Shipping delicate and time-sensitive cargo is our specialty.

Music Touring

There is never a show too large or too small for us to manage. Shipping logistics for complex concert touring circuits requires detailed planning and execution day in and day out, and we know how to deliver.

Our Services

Customized Freight Forwarding

With our tried and tested group of agents and vendors, GG Forces can craft a tailored freight forwarding plan that fits the rigorous demands of any live event around the world.

Air Freight

When production itineraries jump from continent to continent, our team is well equipped to arrange domestic and international air freight services while mitigating risk when time is of the essence.

Ocean Freight

For a more cost-effective option for international transport, our seasoned agents can handle all of your ocean shipping services for general and high-cube containers.

Trucking

Inner-city trucking regulations are complex and always changing. Fortunately, GG Forces is always on top of local city regulations around the globe. We can arrange multi-city trucking for tours and live events of any size.

Rail Freight

If your schedule allows, domestic transport via railways in various countries is a cost-effective alternative to trucking. Railway systems throughout parts of Asia, Europe, and the Americas are highly developed.

Multimodal

We can analyse the most efficient transport options from above and combine parts of them into one customized freight forwarding package that best fits your budget and logistical requirements to execute a seamless tour from start to finish.

Our Services

We take a holistic approach to providing our services. By contracting us to handle the entire scope of the shipping and logistics process, we are able to minimize miscommunication that occurs when using multiple independent service providers. Streamlining this process saves our clients' money and helps eliminate unnecessary delays to keep your live event on schedule.

Customs Brokerage

GG Forces can handle all of your customs brokerage needs in any country around the world. Our operations team has built lasting relationships with local authorities, have years of experience preparing ATA Carnets and other necessary documents, and are pros at securing bonds to move in and out of countries with little to no delays. It's not uncommon for a GG Forces agent to even be onsite to supervise and verify each customs clearance.

Insurance

Most of our clients have their property or goods insured through their existing company policy, but the majority of policies leave holes in international shipping coverage and day-to-day movement of goods. It's common practice for GG Forces to secure tailored policies that properly cover our clients. In this way, we can ensure that if claims are made, your precious cargo will be covered.

Onsite Logistics

Onsite logistics can make or break a tour. Details like properly arranging trucks in loading docks on time for load-ins and outs, arranging and supervising the grounding of containers if necessary, finding a location to store empty containers during show runs if a site lacks available space, and supervising team drivers for long hauls are a handful of onsite logistics we manage day in and day out. For larger tours, our agents often conduct site surveys to take into account detailed requirements to better orchestrate smooth load-ins for each and every event.
